

BULLYING PREVENTION FOR DIVERSE AND URBAN POPULATIONS

Stanley Simmons

KNOW THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A CONFLICT AND BULLYING

- Be careful not to create a bullying scenario

BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN SCHOOL AND FAMILY

- Families must have an opportunity to learn, give input, reflect, and practice newly acquired skills they have gained.

CREATE A D.A.S.A. COMMUNITY

- www.p12.nysed.gov/dignityact/

DAILY CIRCLES

- Incorporate norms, emotional safety, total student involvement, and problem solving goals daily

CLASSROOM AND SCHOOL MANAGEMENT

- The adult in charge of the class at any given point is the most effective person.

STAY IN CHARACTER

- Be aware of your VOICE.

CHILDREN DO NOT CARE HOW MUCH
YOU KNOW UNTIL THEY KNOW HOW MUCH YOU CARE

- Create honest and authentic relationships with ALL students.

ALLOW STUDENTS TO BE LEADERS AND TEACHERS

- Children will if given the opportunity.

MAINTAIN STUDENT PRIVACY AND DIGNITY

- Use mediation protocols to foster accountability and settle conflicts in a collaborative manner.

STAY CURRENT

- Resources, Resources, Resources
