

Project Faculty and Staff

Dr. Lilliam Malavé

F-H Project Director and Principal Investigator

malave@buffalo.edu

Ms. Yuequi Zhang, PhD Candidate and Project Collaborator

yuequiuzh@buffalo.edu

Ms. Ying Hu, Visiting Scholar and Project Collaborator

yhu57@buffalo.edu

About the Project

This project is a collaborative effort between the University at Buffalo Graduate School of Education, UB Office of International Education, and in coordination with National Chengchi University in Taiwan.

Participation expenses will be funded by a United States Department of Education grant.

University at Buffalo
Graduate School of Education

Fulbright-Hays

Mandarin Language & Chinese Culture Immersion Project

Project Phases

PHASE 1

Pre-Departure Guided Activities (Spring 2024)

- Complete the application.
- A short Mandarin language and Chinese culture preparation course.
- Orientation sessions.
- Research activities.

For More Information and to Apply
Visit the Graduate School of Education's website Fulbright Hays
Online application at:
[ed.buffalo.edu/research/projects/
language-culture-immersion](https://ed.buffalo.edu/research/projects/language-culture-immersion)

Fulbright-Hays

PHASE 2

Overseas Experiences (7/6 to 8/17, 2024)

- Mandarin language courses.
- Culture seminars.
- Language and culture tutoring.
- Native Chinese tutors/mentors.
- Integrated culture site visits in Taiwan.

Who can apply?

- Teachers, educators, students and faculty who want to learn Mandarin language and Chinese culture.
- Beginning learners.

Dates: July 6 to August 17, 2024

PHASE 3

Guided Follow-Up Activities (Autumn 2024)

- Capstone projects: Media articles, conference and school presentations.
- Evaluation and research activities.

APPLY
NOW

Application
Deadline:
April 25,
2024

