Research Experience

University at Buffalo, The State University of New York

2022 – Present, Supervisor: Dr. Claire Cameron

- Group Member: Discussed writing critiques as a member of SPEC, Science of Public Engagement and Communication. Pieces reviewed contributed to research publications, doctoral milestone submissions and class papers. Offered the opportunity to practice socialization within a professional setting.

2024 – Present, Supervisor: Dr. Brianna Delvin

- Graduate Assistant:
 - 2024-Present: Assisting with the preparation of a manuscript seeking to understand children's engagement and self-regulation skills in a block play study, investigating whether engagement can be used as an intervention to help support young children's mathematical early learning.

2022 – 2024, Supervisor: Dr. Claire Cameron

- Graduate Assistant:
 - 2023-24: Analyzed qualitative data using a thematic approach on an HTKS-Kids feasibility study. Prepared a manuscript to publish this study as a paper in a high-target journal. Was accepted into AERA and ISLS to disseminate this study. Wrote two unpublished research briefs on HTKS-Kids and Teaching Strategies Gold.
 - 2022-23: Collected speech samplings of diverse groups of children to generate a data pool for analyzation of children's language, storytelling, and play for Project Equity. Assessed children using HTKS-Kids (Head-Toes-Knees-Shoulders), a digital tool generated to measure self-regulation skills. Transcribed language and led a team of transcribers using the computer program CLAN (Computerized Language Analysis) from the Child Language Data Exchange System (CHILDES). The Project Equity webpage can be found here: <https://childes.talkbank.org/access/Eng-AAE/Cameron.html>.
 - Cameron, C. E. (Principal Investigator), McClelland, M. M., & Kwan, T. (5/1/2021-12/30/2023). Supplemental awards 1 and 2 to HTKS-Kids: A feasibility study to gamify the Head-Toes-Knees-Shoulders behavioral self-regulation research assessment. The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, INV-034807.
 - Cameron, C. E., Starke, K., Lewis-Jones, T., Mead, C., Didrichsen, S., & Baker, M. (2023). Technical codebook for Project Equity: A study to capture, appreciate, and understand young children's language diversity. Unpublished document.
