

ENGLISH CONTENT PREREQUISITES WORKSHEET

Name:
Degree and Date:

Major:
Institution/ GPA:

To be fully admitted to the University at Buffalo initial or initial/professional English teacher certification program students must have the following prerequisites completed:

- an undergraduate degree in English.
- grades of "C" or higher in all content coursework.
- coursework that meets the content distribution in the table below.

Students can be conditionally accepted to the program with no more than 9 required English credits uncompleted; however, all requirements must be completed prior to student teaching and/or prior to degree conferral.

American Literature Surveys – 2 courses
Department	Course #	Course Title	Credits	Grade
British Literature Surveys – 2 courses
Department	Course #	Course Title	Credits	Grade
Shakespeare (or Shakespeare based film class) – 1 course
Department	Course #	Course Title	Credits	Grade
World or Multicultural Literature – 1 course
Department	Course #	Course Title	Credits	Grade
The "novel" course or an in depth author study (i.e. Faulkner), a genre study (crime fiction), or period focused (Victorian Literature) – 1 course
Department	Course #	Course Title	Credits	Grade
Requirements Met ✓
Degree in English		Grades "C" or Higher	Content Distribution
Courses needed:
Department	Course #	Course Title	Credits	Grade

This worksheet is intended as a guide to assist prospective students in their planning. Use the chart to check prerequisite content requirements for admission to our English Education programs. The final determination of prerequisite content requirements will be made by faculty in the Department of Learning and Instruction during the admission process.